Subscription Rules

Payments Date: Subscriptions are due and payable in full on the 1st September, or by instalments by arrangement with the secretary.

Autumn Hunting: will commence in August and a cap will be collected from non subscribers, including those who have not yet paid their subscription before coming out hunting. From 1st October normal hunting rates will apply.

Hunting Days: Subscribers may hunt on any day providing that they have paid the relevant subscription. Those who have subscribed to a package must give the ticket relating to the day to the secretary at the meet.

Grooms: who hunt are expected to subscribe.

Gate shutting: subscribers are expected to gate shut one day per season. A day will be allocated and if they are unable to fulfil this responsibility they must find their own replacement and notify the secretary. A red sash will be given to those on duty at the meet which must be returned to the Master of the day upon completing the duty NOT before 3pm. Please report any breakages to the Master of the Day even if you are not gate shutting.

All Members of the Cottesmore Hunt must be members of the Countryside Alliance and the Cottesmore Hunt Supporters Club.
